LAST RULES COMMITTEE AUDIT: 12 APRIL 2023

1. MATTERS FUNDAMENTAL.

1.1. Statutes Defined.

1.1.1. Rules of Construction.

1.1.1.1. Authority Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.1.1.1.1. UMDSGS binds all parties in the Preamble as the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn's sole governing document. Said parties must know and adhere to UMDSGS.
- 1.1.1.1.2. UMDSGS is written in U.S. English and may be translated upon request. Any translation is equal to the U.S. English version.
- 1.1.1.1.3. The latest Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised is the sole resource on parliamentary procedure when not contradicting UMDSGS.
- 1.1.1.1.4. No member receives monetary compensation for vending, sales, or services without Senate approval.
- 1.1.1.1.5. The Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn may not financially assist or support any partisan political activity.

1.1.1.2. Format Defined. (AS OF 27 FEBRUARY 2022)

- 1.1.1.2.1. UMDSGS uses the following containers, in increasing specificity: title (in bold, UPPER CASE), part (in Title Case), chapter (in Title Case), section (in bold, Title Case), and paragraph (in regular case).
- 1.1.1.2.2. Every section of UMDSGS states the last amended date, reading: (AS OF [day in Arabic numerals, in bold] MONTH [year in Arabic numerals, in bold]).
- 1.1.1.2.3. Every title starts at the top of a page.
- 1.1.1.2.4. Every section starts at the top of a page if not followed by one (1) complete paragraph.
- 1.1.1.2.5. Every paragraph starts at the top of a page if it would be split between two pages.
- 1.1.1.2.6. There are no more than nine (9) titles, and nine (9) of each container per level of a given title, and no more than ninety-nine (99) paragraphs per section.
- 1.1.1.2.7. Every definition in UMDSGS formats the defined word in UPPER CASE.
- 1.1.1.2.8. Defined words, except for the definition itself, are in Title Case.
- 1.1.1.2.9. Every number is in Arabic numerals, within closed parentheses, immediately after the written-out number.

1.1.2. Rules of Interpretation.

1.1.2.1. Rules of Interpretation Defined. (AS OF 11 OCTOBER 2021) 1.1.2.1.1. Any interpretation of UMDSGS is binding yet does not set precedent.

1.1.2.1.2. Either the American English or any translation is used when interpreting. Only one version may be cited per interpretation.

1.1.2.2. Same; Parliamentary Precedents Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022) 1.1.2.2.1. Quorum is one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of total Senators.

1.1.2.2.2. Quorum for the approval of Minutes, Agenda, and Fellow Petitions is one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of total Senators.

1.1.2.2.3. Unless otherwise noted, a motion is carried if a majority of Senators present vote in favor.

1.1.2.2.4. Written consent is in writing or typed, accompanied by the relevant signature(s), or by email. Texts, social media direct messages, and screenshots are not written consent.

1.1.2.3. Same; Jurisprudential Precedents Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.1.2.3.1. The Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn is a constitutionalist and representative democracy.
- 1.1.2.3.2. The privilege of withholding information is EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE. Executive Privilege does not protect behavior violating office decorum, the Policies of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, or Municipal, State, or Federal law.

1.1.3. Rules of Amendment.

1.1.3.1. Rules of Amendment Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.1.3.1.1. Amendments concerning internal operations require a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) Senate majority vote. If approved by the Senate, the President either signs off on the amendment, making it binding, or vetoes it, making it null and void, within five (5) Academic Days of Senate approval. The President informs by written communication and through their update the next General Meeting of a veto. A veto is overridden by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) Senate majority vote at the next General Meeting immediately following said veto.
- 1.1.3.1.2. Amendments concerning how the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn interacts with the student body require a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) Senate majority vote to put it to a popular referendum ballot. This vote does not signal the Senate's approval of the amendment.
- 1.1.3.1.3. Only two (2) student body referendum ballots may occur in a single year's time, starting with the first General Meeting after an inauguration ceremony and ending with the next inauguration ceremony.
- 1.1.3.1.4. Amendments to MATTERS ELECTORAL approved in an Election Cycle will take effect in the next Election Cycle.

1.1.3.2. Same; Resolving Contradictions. (AS OF 10 SEPTEMBER 2021)

- 1.1.3.2.1. Any contradiction in UMDSGS renders the relevant paragraph(s) of the relevant section(s) with the latest amendment date null and void.
- 1.1.3.2.2. If the relevant paragraph(s) of the relevant section(s) have the same amendment date, the Rules Committee, the Recording Secretary, and the Corresponding Secretary jointly issue a ruling.

1.2. Operations Defined.

1.2.1. Resolutions.

1.2.1.1. Legislative Resolution Defined. (AS OF 28 FEBRUARY 2022)

- 1.2.1.1.1. Any student in the University of Michigan system may write a formal declaration, decree, or request, called a LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION, for the Senate to vote on and the President to sign off on.
- 1.2.1.1.2. All Legislative Resolutions are sponsored by at least one (1) Senator of the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn before approval by a Standing or Ad-hoc Internal Committee. Said Senator may not be the author.
- 1.2.1.1.3. All Legislative Resolutions are codified with the following format: the letter L, hyphen, term abbreviation (the letter F for Fall, W for Winter, and S for Summer), year (in Arabic numerals), period, and then a number denoting what place it came to the Senate in for that term (in Arabic numerals, always including the ones and tens places).

1.2.1.2. Same; Rules of Approval. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.2.1.2.1. Once authored and sponsored, a Legislative Resolution is approved by the most applicable Standing or Ad-hoc Internal Committee by majority vote. If approved, the Rules Committee reviews said Legislative Resolution to ensure compliance with UMDSGS and the Policies of the University of Michigan-Dearborn. If there are any conflicts, the Legislative Resolution may not go to the Senate.

- 1.2.1.2.2. Once reviewed, the Legislative Resolution is sent at least 24 hours prior to the General Meeting it is read and voted at.
- 1.2.1.2.3. At said General Meeting, the approved and reviewed Legislative Resolution is presented by the authors and approved by Senate majority vote any time after being presented.
- 1.2.1.2.4. At any member's request, a Legislative Resolution may be read in part or in full.
- 1.2.1.2.5. If approved by the Senate, the President either signs off on the Legislative Resolution, making it binding, or vetoes it, making it null and void, within five (5) Academic Days of Senate approval. The President informs by written communication and through their update the next General Meeting of a veto. A veto is overridden by a two-thirds (2/3) Senate majority vote at the next General Meeting immediately following said veto. If not vetoed or signed off within five (5) Academic Days, the Legislative Resolution is binding.
- 1.2.1.2.6. After the Legislative Resolution is binding, it is sent to whomever it concerns or is addressed to.

1.2.1.3. Executive Resolution Defined. (AS OF 28 FEBRUARY 2022)

- 1.2.1.3.1. The President of the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn may author and sign off on a formal declaration, decree, or request, called an EXECUTIVE RESOLUTION.
- 1.2.1.3.2. All Executive Resolutions are sponsored by at least one (1) Executive Board Member of the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn before the President signs off on it. Said Executive Board Member may not be the President.
- 1.2.1.3.3. All Executive Resolutions are codified using the following format: the letter E, hyphen, term abbreviation (with the letter F for Fall, W for Winter, and S for Summer), year (in Arabic numerals), period, and then a number denoting what place it came to the Senate in for that term (in Arabic numerals, always including the ones and tens places).

1.2.1.4. Same; Rules of Approval. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.2.1.4.1. Once authored and sponsored, an Executive Resolution is approved and binding upon the President's sign-off. The President informs by written communication and through their update the General Meeting of the passage of an Executive Resolution.
- 1.2.1.4.2. At any member's request, an Executive Resolution may be read in part or in full.
- 1.2.1.4.3. An Executive Resolution is vetoed by Senate majority vote at the General Meeting following the President's sign-off.
- 1.2.1.4.4. After an Executive Resolution is binding, it is sent to whomever it concerns or is addressed to.

1.2.2. Attendance.

1.2.2.1. Meetings Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.2.2.1.1. The Executive Board, the Senate, the Students of Michigan Delegates, the Advisor, and the Election Coordinator if it is an Election Cycle, assemble at least once a week during the Fall and Winter terms and at least once every other week during the Summer term to bring forth, discuss, and vote on policies such that those noble aims laid out in the Preamble of UMDSGS are fulfilled to the best of this assembly's abilities, called MEETINGS.
- 1.2.2.1.2. Meetings may only be held on days classes are in session, called ACADEMIC DAYS.
- 1.2.2.1.3. Those weekly Meetings of the Executive Board and the Senate are GENERAL MEETINGS. General Meetings are chaired by the President or the Executive Secretary on alternating weeks. Either the President or the Executive Secretary may choose a designee to chair in their stead from the Executive Board or Senate Leadership, respectively. Anyone may send a written version of their update to a General Meeting if they cannot attend. For voting matters, each Senator has one vote to cast. All other members may not vote unless otherwise stated.

- 1.2.2.1.4. The President alone may call for Meetings in the event of an issue, legislative act, or any matter which needs to be addressed sooner than the next General Meeting, called EMERGENCY MEETINGS. All members are notified at least 48 hours in advance. Any member who cannot attend will not accrue an absence. Emergency Meetings are chaired by either the President or the Executive Secretary or either of their designee. For voting matters, each Senator has one vote to cast. All other members may not vote unless otherwise stated.

- 1.2.2.1.5. Those as-needed Meetings of the Executive Board are called EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS. The President or their chosen designee chairs Executive Board Meetings. For voting matters, each Executive Board Member present has one vote to cast, and the President has no vote to cast unless they are not chairing the Executive Board meeting.

- 1.2.2.1.6. Those as-needed Meetings of Senate Leadership are called SENATE LEADERSHIP MEETINGS. The Executive Secretary or their chosen designee chairs Senate Leadership Meetings, and the presence of either the Chair or Vice Chair from a Standing or Ad-Hoc Internal Committee counts as the presence of both. For voting matters, each committee present has one vote to cast, and the Executive Secretary has no vote to cast unless they are not chairing the Senate Leadership Meeting.

- 1.2.2.1.7. Those as-needed Meetings of Standing or Ad-Hoc Internal Committees are called COMMITTEE MEETINGS. The Standing or Ad-Hoc Internal Committee Chair or their chosen designee chairs their committee's meetings. For voting matters, each Senator has one vote to cast, and the Vice Chair has one vote to cast. All other members may not vote.

1.2.2.2. Same; Structure. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.2.2.2.1. The chair of a Meeting decides the time, location, and format, and has whoever keeps the records for said Meeting notify the relevant parties with at least 48 hours' notice in a way agreed upon, as well as send out the Meeting's agenda and the previous Meeting's minutes, if necessary.

- 1.2.2.2.2. The chair of the Meeting clearly communicates expectations for all online and/or phone Meetings, as well as what technology is permitted in their Meetings.
- 1.2.2.2.3. Whoever chairs the Meeting may expel any member violating technology expectations from their Meeting. This expulsion does not carry over to future Meetings.
- 1.2.2.2.4. A Meeting's agenda may use the following items, in this order, unless amended to be otherwise: Call to Order, Roll Call, Approval of the Agenda, Approval of the Minutes, Community Concerns, Guest Speaker(s) (optional item), Officer Updates (includes committee and/or subcommittee updates when relevant), Committee of the Whole (optional item), Old Business (optional item), New Business, Open Forum, Adjournment. Subitems may be added as needed.

- 1.2.2.2.5. Once the designated start time of a Meeting is reached, the chair of a Meeting calls the meeting to order within 15 minutes.

1.2.2.3. Mandatory Events Defined. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)

- 1.2.2.3.1. An event yet to be held by any body of people, affiliated with the University of Michigan-Dearborn or otherwise, may be made mandatory to attend, and are called a MANDATORY EVENT.
- 1.2.2.3.2. The President gives written notice at a General Meeting of any Mandatory Events at least five (5) Academic Days prior, called GENERAL EVENTS. At the General Meeting following the written notice, the notice may be withdrawn by a two-thirds (2/3) Senate majority vote.
- 1.2.2.3.3. The Executive Secretary gives written notice to the Senate of any Mandatory Events at least five (5) Academic Days prior, called SENATE EVENTS. At the Senate Leadership Meeting following the written notice, the notice may be withdrawn by a Senate Leadership majority vote.
- 1.2.2.3.4. The Committee Chair gives written notice to their Standing or Ad-hoc Internal Committee of any Mandatory Events at least five (5) Academic Days prior, called COMMITTEE EVENTS. At the Committee Meeting following the written notice, the notice may be withdrawn by a Standing or Ad-hoc Internal Committee majority vote.

- 1.2.2.3.5. The Mandatory Event has a minimum time requirement included in the written notice.

1.2.2.4. Attendance Code and Proxy Voting Defined. (AS OF 01 DECEMBER 2022)

- 1.2.2.4.1. A member attends the required Meetings, Mandatory Events, Office Hours, and Liaison Check-Ins.
- 1.2.2.4.2. If any member receives a total of three (3) unexcused absences, they are removed from office without notice. Senators-Elect are treated the same as Senators in regards to attendance, and their attendance record carries over.
- 1.2.2.4.3. A member is considered absent if they do not attend the first two-thirds (2/3) of a Meeting or Mandatory Event. Attendance of the latter two-thirds (2/3) of a Meeting or Mandatory Event counts if written notice is given before the Meeting starts that one will be late. No explanation for one's absence or for one's tardiness is necessary.

- 1.2.2.4.4. Absence from a General Meeting or a Mandatory Event shall count as one (1) absence towards a member's total absences.
- 1.2.2.4.5. Internal Standing and Ad-hoc Committee Meetings shall count as one-half (1/2) of an absence toward a member's total absences. It is at the discretion of each internal Committee Chair to excuse internal committee meeting absences.
- 1.2.2.4.6. A Senator who is absent does not count toward quorum and forfeits their vote during their absence. A Senator may only vote by proxy on Old Business and New Business agenda items at least 24 hours prior to the Meeting's start time. A proxy vote must be communicated to the Corresponding Secretary in writing.
- 1.2.2.4.7. Any member may appeal a missed Meeting, Mandatory Event, Office Hour, or a Liaison Check-In to the Executive Board. The Executive Board approves requests by majority vote.
- 1.2.2.4.8. The Recording Secretary informs the member of the Executive Board's decision within five (5) Academic Days of the vote by written notice. If denied, the reason(s) for denial must be included.

Denials may be appealed to the Senate for a final and binding two-thirds (2/3) Senate majority vote.

1.2.3. Other Procedures.

1.2.3.1. Office Hours and Liaison Check-Ins Defined. (AS OF 28 FEBRUARY 2022)

- 1.2.3.1.1. The Executive Board and Senate Leadership meet to produce a weekly schedule that has at least one

(1) member from Executive Board, Senate Leadership, and a Committee, present in the office of the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn for at least one (1) hour out of an Academic Day, called OFFICE HOURS. Only one person in the office at a time may count their hours.

- 1.2.3.1.2. Instead of performing an Office Hour, a member may choose to conduct a weekly check-in on one (1)

SSO or RSO on behalf of the Student Government of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, called a LIAISON CHECK-IN. Only one person per week may conduct a Liaison Check-In on one (1) SSO or RSO. The SSO or RSO may provide a note of satisfaction as proof of completion.

- 1.2.3.1.3. Weekly Office Hours and/or Liaison Check-Ins count towards a member's attendance, including the failure to sign on for Office Hours and/or liaison check-ins.

1.2.3.2. Leaders and Best Service Awards Defined. (AS OF 05 APRIL 2023)

- 1.2.3.2.1. The Executive Board positions which qualify for a service award (per term in the position) are the President, Vice President, Director of Inclusion, Director of Athletics, Director of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs, Director of Technology, Financial Secretary, Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary.

- 1.2.3.2.2. The Senate positions which qualify for a service award (per term in the position) are the Executive Secretary and the Chairs of all Standing Internal Committees. A Standing Internal Committee Chair who receives a service award may grant a portion or the entirety of their service award to their Vice Chair, Subcommittee Chairs, and/or Subcommittee Vice Chairs.

- 1.2.3.2.3. All positions which qualify for a service award receive a service award according to the Leaders and Best Service Award policy and approval through the LBSA Commission.

 - 2.1.3.2.2. The Executive Secretary gives an update of their work during General Meetings.
 - 2.1.3.2.3. The Executive Secretary and the Director of Inclusion jointly prepare all Standing or Ad-Hoc Internal Committee assignments with Senate majority vote. Changes to these assignments may be made with written consent of the Senator(s) concerned, and such changes are made known to the Senate. Otherwise, another Senate majority vote is needed to approve the change.
 - 2.1.3.2.4. The Executive Secretary and the Director of Inclusion jointly interview all Senators interested in chairing a Standing or Ad-Hoc Internal Committee, as well as jointly appoint Chairs.
- 2.1.3.3. Same; Runoff Election. (AS OF 14 MARCH 2022)
 - 2.1.3.3.1. Any Senate member may nominate any Senator, who is not oneself, to be Executive Secretary. This nomination is seconded by any Senate member who is not oneself. The nominated Senator announces whether they accept their nomination. A Senator may give written consent to such a nomination if they cannot attend the runoff election.
 - 2.1.3.3.2. At the conclusion of nominations, nominated Senators introduce themselves and state why they are running, as well as their plans and ideas they would present if they were Executive Secretary. There is then a period of review, where any members may pursue any relevant line of questioning. After said review, the nominated Senators are removed from the room while closed discussion and voting is conducted.
 - 2.1.3.3.3. The Senate votes on each nominated Senator, with the nominated Senator with most “nays” being removed from the runoff. This process repeats until one nominated Senator remains, who, in this final election, is voted in by having no more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the Senate voting “nay”.
 - 2.1.3.3.4. All votes are cast by roll-call, and may either be announced or privately given to the Director of Inclusion, the Recording Secretary, the Corresponding Secretary, or the Advisor. Only one of these officers is chosen as the designed recipient for private votes for the entire runoff.
 - 2.1.3.3.5. If this final election is rejected, the runoff election begins anew from the nomination stage.
 - 2.1.3.3.6. Once a winner is decided the nominated Senators are called back into the room and informed of the results.
